New university course is based on In Her Hands

Marin, California, April 15, 2009

In Her Hands: Craftswomen Changing the World, which features women artisans in twelve countries on four continents, is the textbook and basis for a course developed by Penelope Miller, Ph.D., who teaches on the Visual Arts faculty at Coastal Carolina University. Her students create crafts such as pottery and weaving as a way to understand multicultural diversity, art and identity in the developing world. Dr. Miller will present the course to the American Educational Research Association Conference in San Diego on April 14 and the National Art Education Association Convention in Minneapolis on April 17, 2009.
